The Oregon State University Panhellenic Council is in full support of the movements against racial injustice.

We work to create an inclusive and empowering environment for our students. In our efforts to do so, the Panhellenic Council encourages the members of our community to be outspoken against racism, inequality and injustice. Now is the time to embrace Panhellenic’s core values of knowledge, service, community, and leadership.

We encourage all members of our community to gain knowledge about the problematic history of our organizations, and work to create space for women of all identities and backgrounds.

Inclusivity has never been more important than it is at this moment. The Panhellenic community at Oregon State University is committed to make our community more inclusive by actively fighting against racism, bigotry, and other divisionary forces of hate that divide and exclude.

The Panhellenic Executive Council is a team of officers slated by their peers. The Panhellenic Council consists of delegates from the 11 Panhellenic chapters on OSU’s campus. The Council acts as the governing body for the Panhellenic chapters. The Panhellenic Executive Council coordinates fall formal recruitment, campus and community service projects, and other educational programs.
Dear Potential New Members,

On behalf of the Panhellenic Council I would like to welcome you to Recruitment! Embarking on this journey is not only a bold and nerve wracking decision, but it is also one you will never forget. While some of you may be legacies, or know someone in a chapter currently, you do not even have to know how many sororities we have at Oregon State to benefit from this process. Being able to go through recruitment and meet so many talented and amazing young women is just the beginning of a lifetime of friendships, and opportunities that will carry you much farther than you could have ever imagined.

Everyone going through recruitment has their own story and we want to make sure you are able to tell it. One of the themes of our recruitment process is authenticity and we as an entire council make sure not only the chapters recruiting, but the potential new members going through the recruitment process portray themselves in the most authentic manner possible. Use this to your advantage and make sure you feel comfortable in what you are wearing, feeling, and even in what you are saying in conversations you will be having. Be true to yourself, and keep an open mind. Those two things will help guide you to finding your home!

I am so excited to watch and guide you all through this process and I wish you the best of luck!

Panhellenic Love,

Devyn Halvorson
Panhellenic President
A Letter to the PNM

A Message From VP Recruitment

Dear Potential New Members,

I am so beyond excited to guide you all through the recruitment process this year! Being apart of a Panhellenic Community is a beautiful opportunity that I hope each of you will be able to experience during your time here at Oregon State. The women that make up our community are strong, caring, intelligent, and so many other wonderful qualities. I am sure some of you are feeling sheer excitement, while others my be overwhelmed. Know that that is completely normal! Hopefully, you will each be able to find one of our eleven chapters to call home! My unsolicited advice is to view recruitment as an opportunity to connect and learn from the people around you, and most importantly be your true self! Though your college experience may only last four years, the relationships you build and memories you make as a member of the Oregon State Panhellenic community will last far beyond that!

See you soon!

Makayla Schmierer
Vice President of Recruitment
The National Panhellenic Conference (NPC) is the umbrella organization for 26 women’s fraternities. NPC emerged in 1902 out of the realization that in order to live up to their stated ideals and purposes, all decisions and action of all sororities must be guided by the principles of “fair play” and a cooperative spirit. The real key to the success of our sororities lies in a unified spirit of cooperation and mutual concern for one another.

Learn more about NPC and the sorority experience at thesororitylife.com
Circle Of Sisterhood

The OSU Panhellenic community collectively supports the Circle of Sisterhood as our community philanthropy.

The Circle of Sisterhood Foundation is a mechanism by which sorority women can stand together as one community to help improve the lives and livelihood of girls and women worldwide by removing barriers to education.

“Education is access – to knowledge, to understanding/compassion, to skills, to community. Education should not be something that is compromised any more than the need for air in our lungs or food in our mouths.”

A Little Goes a Long Way...

24¢ = notebook and a pencil

$3.30 = noon meal for school year

$7.00 = a set of textbooks

$13.00 = tuition for the year

$29.00 = a school uniform

$53 = is the amount it takes to send a girl to school for one academic year

Learn more about our support for Circle of Sisterhood at: https://circleofsiserhood.org/
The term “Gamma Chi” refers to a Panhellenic woman who has disaffiliated from her chapter to help guide potential new members through recruitment. Gamma Chis are also referred to as recruitment counselors because they provide support during the fall formal recruitment process.
Sticker Explanation

Gamma Chi’s are here as resources to every potential new member and have a well rounded understanding of the Panhellenic Community. These women have all been trained on the formal recruitment process. Below are different stickers that you can find on the Gamma Chis name tags throughout recruitment to help you talk with someone who has a similar experience to you!

Legacy

This member was a legacy to a Panhellenic sorority throughout the recruitment process. This means either their mom, sister or grandma was a member of a sorority that we have at Oregon State. They did not necessarily join this chapter.

Pays Sorority Dues

This member pays their sorority dues without assistance.

First Sorority Member in the Family

This member was the first person in their family to join a sorority.

Part Time Job

This member has a job either on or off campus on top of being a college student and a sorority member.

Out-of-State

This member is not from Oregon.
Decoding the MRABA

The MRABA Stands for Membership Recruitment Acceptance Binding Agreement. It is the document that is signed right before final selections are made during Preference round. The MRABA is broken down into nine sections. However, the first six sections are the most important for PNMs to read and understand. It is important that you fully comprehend the contract before making your final preferences. This information is provided to help you break it down!

One

I am willing to accept an invitation to membership from any sorority or women’s fraternity that I list on this agreement. PNMs should only list the chapters they are willing to join.

Two

I may limit my choices to just one OR list any sorority or women’s fraternity whose preference round (last) event I attended, and from which I am willing to accept membership. I realize that by not listing the maximum number of events I attended, I may be limiting my potential to join any other NPC group during formal recruitment should I not be placed with my choice(s).

Three

Once I submit this agreement to the Panhellenic Association, I cannot change the order of my preferences or add or delete a preference. Once the form is signed and submitted, the order of the chapter list and selections cannot be altered.

A PNM can only rank chapters whose final (preference) events they attended (if they went to A and B, C isn’t an option). They don’t have to rank all the chapters they attended, but we encourage them to maximize their options, because it gives them a better chance of being matched to a group.
Four

If I do not receive an invitation to membership from a group listed, I am eligible for continuous open bidding.

If a PNM does not maximize their options and doesn’t receive a bid from a group listed on their MRABA, they can join any chapter through continuous open bidding (COB) or informal recruitment. This is only available to groups that have open spots in their chapter.

Five

I have the option of not submitting an agreement at this time.

A PNM does not have to submit an MRABA, which results in them being removed from the recruitment process.

Six

Once I submit this agreement, I am bound by the National Panhellenic Conference one calendar year rule. This rule states that if through the formal membership recruitment process, I receive a bid and decline it, then I am ineligible to be pledged to another NPC fraternity on the same campus until the beginning of the next formal membership recruitment period.

If a PNM receives a bid from a chapter they list and then later chooses not to be pledged or initiated, they cannot join another NPC group on that campus until the next formal membership recruitment period. If they are not initiated and transfers schools, they can participate in recruitment at the first opportunity on the new campus.

Meet the Other Councils

Fraternity & Sorority Life has a rich legacy at OSU. The community is over 140 years old as we were established in 1882! Our community is an integral part of the OSU student experience. Thirteen percent of the total undergraduate student body are Fraternity & Sorority members, which comes out to over 2300 students. Additionally, we currently have 46 chapters and our community grows more each year.

Oregon State has 5 councils that represent a diversified Greek community. The Interfraternity Council (IFC), Collective Greek Council (CGC), Multicultural Greek Council (MGC), Panhellenic Council (PHC), and the National Pan-Hellenic Council (NPHC) all strive to uphold the 6 core values: Scholarship, Philanthropy & Community Service, Leadership, Friendship, and Inclusivity.
National Pan-Hellenic Council

NPHC is the governing council for the historically African-American fraternities and sororities at OSU. All chapters within this council are currently unhoused and you do not have to identify with a specific racial identity to become a member.

Recruitment FAQ

Do I need to go to all of the events listed in the recruitment schedule?

YES. If you intentionally miss an event to which you were invited, you are not maximizing your options and will be released from the rest of the recruitment process.

If I am a legacy to a sorority, is there anything I should know?

Panhellenic does not have any specific policies regarding legacies. Each chapter has its own policy and procedure regarding legacies Likewise, legacies are not obligated to join the chapter they are a legacy to.

What is “mutual selection”?

“Mutual selection” is the process we use for formal recruitment. It means that as you go through the rounds, you’re narrowing down your choices, as well as the chapters are narrowing down the amount of PNMs they are inviting back. To put things simpler: You choose them AND they choose you. All in all, the mutual selection process is there to help you and is proven to be successful.

If I just participate in formal recruitment, am I obligated to join a sorority?

No, a potential new member that goes through the recruitment process is not obligated to join a sorority. The recruitment process is for potential new members to explore fraternity and sorority life to see if it is the right fit.

How much of a time commitment is being in a sorority?

Each sorority has basic time commitments and mandatory events such as chapter meetings and New Member meetings once a week. Some chapters may require study hours. Time commitment for being a sorority member can vary from one woman to another depending on chapter positions and outside commitments. But many sorority women are able to manage sorority responsibilities, jobs or internships, academics and involvement in other campus organizations. If you are interested in joining a sorority but have concerns about the time commitment, feel free to ask members during recruitment how they balance their time!

What if I want to be in a specific sorority?

Only wanting to be a member to one specific sorority or only considering a few sororities can severely limit a PNM’s options for membership, and can lead to disappointment. Don’t choose a sorority based on stereotypes or other’s opinions. We encourage you to keep an open mind about all the chapters and make a decision that is right for you.

What if I receive a bid and turn it down?

Formal admittance into the sorority/fraternity. The new members participate in a ceremony that marks formal admittance into the sorority/fraternity. The initiation ceremony is secret and rooted in history. Hazing is not tolerated as a part of initiation.
What To Ask During Recruitment

One of the best questions to ask a woman in a chapter is why she decided to choose her chapter. The best way to get to know a chapter is by asking questions that matter to you.

How do you balance school and your sorority?

Where is your favorite Corvallis spot?

What are your deepest values?

What are the financial obligations of your membership?

What is your favorite memory with a sorority sister?

What is your favorite line from your creed?

What connects you to your philanthropy?

What was your favorite sisterhood event?

How often do you see your sisters?

Are there any chapter programs that help with studying?

What are there any chapter programs that help with studying?

What are some of the majors of the girls in this chapter?

What are some of the majors of the girls in this chapter?

What are the opportunities for chapter leadership?

Are you required to buy all of the sorority merchandise?

What are some of the other activities on campus that your members participate in?

What was your biggest challenge when you first joined your chapter?

What made you join your sorority?

What can I expect after Bid Day?
PNM Tips

Take notes after leaving each event: Keeping notes will help you when making decisions about your preferences.

Be open minded! Even if you think a chapter might not be the right fit for you, it’s still a great opportunity to meet new people and you might make a new friend!

Look at each chapter as a whole—do not judge a chapter by the one or two members you meet.

Ask questions—it helps keep the conversation flowing and is a sign of your interest.

Remember that the chapter members may also be nervous and will appreciate answering any questions that you may have.

BE YOURSELF! Talk about your interests and experiences when asked.

Be mature in your decision-making and be realistic about which members you feel most comfortable with. DO NOT be influenced by others’ opinions

DO NOT interpret any remark made during an event as assurance of an invitation back to the chapter. An individual member cannot guarantee an invitation back for future rounds. If you do hear something that you interpret as such, talk to your Gamma Chis!

If you are a legacy to a chapter, feel free to mention this during events but know that there are no guarantees of receiving a bid due to legacy status. Each chapter has different legacy policies and many national organizations have updated their legacy policies in recent years.

Get plenty of sleep, bring snacks, and make sure to set aside time to do your homework!

Discuss your feelings about a chapter or a certain event privately with your Recruitment Counselor, NOT with other PNMs.

Don’t worry about learning everyone’s name; no one expects you to. Everyone will be wearing name tags.

Dress for each day as mentioned but you should not feel the need to buy anything new for the week. You should wear what you feel comfortable in and what reflects your personality best.

Ask about Panhellenic and its activities (such as Love Week, Greek Week, leadership workshops, etc.)

Trust the process! Recruitment is full of ups and downs but the end result is worth it!
All PNMs should download the PNM Companion App before they arrive at orientation. The app is a great way to look at scheduled chapter events each round and will be the way you submit chapter preferences at the end of rounds.

One: Download the PNM Companion app by going to the app store and searching “PNM Companion”

Two: Login with your account information from Campus Director (Email and Password)

Three: On the login screen, there is a Forgot Password Link

If you are having difficulty logging in email Makayla at PanhellenicVP Recruitment@oregonstate.edu or find the nearest Panhellenic Officer.
