  - Please remember that a lot of our community relies on structure. With a lack of structure, it becomes a lot easier to participate in behaviors that aren't acceptable during all hours of the day in our regular lives. This is a critical time to keep a routine and limit disruptive behaviors that can be detrimental to people academic, personal, and mental success.
  - Also, a good reminder that our demographic is most likely to ignore social distancing policies and the more we encourage each other to stay home, the quicker we can get back to normal life!
  - Look out for each other.
